Your FWD Cancer insurance policy

This is a non-participating critical illness plan offered by FWD Singapore Pte. Ltd ("FWD").

'Non-participating' means the person insured does not participate in the insurance company's business. This means that you will not receive any bonuses or dividends which we may declare.

This is not a savings or investment product

Your FWD Cancer insurance policy is not a savings or investment product. We will not pay any money under this policy other than for the cancer benefit or death benefit.

Your FWD Cancer insurance policy is an insurance contract between you and us. Your policy pack is made up of the documents listed below:

- This policy contract,
- The policy schedule,
- Your application form and any documents you provided with it,
- Any endorsement to your policy, if applicable.

By reading your contract carefully, you'll know exactly what you're covered for, and how to make a claim.

A policy endorsement is the document we provide that records any official change to your policy.

You can pay your premiums to us through any of the following methods:

- Auto-debit from a credit card, or
- Other modes of payments as updated on our website from time to time.

Choosing who receives the benefits

Cancer benefit

This benefit will be paid to you in a lump sum equivalent to 100% of the sum insured for the cancer benefit or the total premiums paid, whichever is higher, as stated in the policy schedule.

Death benefit

This benefit will be paid to your nominee in a lump sum equivalent to 100% of the sum insured for the death benefit, as stated in the policy schedule.

Any amount due to us under this policy will be deducted from any benefit that becomes payable within the grace period.

When insurance cover begins and ends

This is a one-year policy, providing insurance cover for the period of insurance. This policy starts on the coverage start date as shown in the policy schedule or on the date we receive the first premium, whichever is later.

Renewal

We will automatically renew this policy by one more year at the end of the period of insurance, until you reach 85 years old, if this policy is valid at the end of the period of insurance.

The premium we charge you for the subsequent year(s) will be the same as the premium that we charge other people who have the same age, gender, sum insured and smoking status as yourself on the day this policy is renewed. We will not take into account any changes in your health, but any conditions we imposed when we first issued this policy will apply to your policy.

You can choose not to renew this policy by writing to us 30 days before the end of the period of insurance.

Nomination

You can choose one nominee or more to receive the death benefit. See page 8 (the main people under your policy) for more details on your different choices.

Exclusions and conditions

This policy has certain exclusions, meaning situations where we won't pay a benefit. The specific and general exclusions and/or conditions are set out throughout this policy contract.

Surrender values

If you surrender (cancel) your policy, you:

- will lose the coverage under this policy; and
- will not receive any amount in return.

In addition, any changes to your health or circumstances in the future may make it more difficult or costly for you to get coverage in the future.

14-day free-look period

If you aren't completely satisfied with your policy, and you haven't made a claim under it, you have 14 days from the date you receive your policy to cancel it and receive your premiums back. We consider this policy delivered from the time we email it to you.

What you need to do

You must write to us to cancel. We must receive your notice within the 14-day free-look period.

What we will do

After receiving your notice, we will refund you any premiums paid after deducting any fees we have paid and/or expenses incurred (if any). Thereafter, we will cancel your policy, and you will not be able to claim any benefits under it.

You cannot cancel your policy if you have made a claim under your policy during the 14-day free-look period.

The main people under your policy

This section explains who the main people under your policy are, what rights they have, and how they are treated.

Person insured

This is the person insured under your policy. A person insured (other than the policy owner) cannot make changes to your policy.

Policy owner

The policy owner owns the policy. Details of the policy owner are shown in the policy schedule or endorsement. The policy owner is the only person who may make changes to, or enforce any rights under this policy.

Under FWD Cancer insurance, you are the policy owner and person insured under the policy, unless there were changes made to your policy through the assignment of benefits.

You may choose a person to receive the benefits payable upon death under this policy.

Age requirements for policy owner and person insured

Age requirements apply for the policy owner and person insured, which are shown in the following table.

Policy owner / Person insured	Minimum age when you can apply Must be at least 18 years old.
	Maximum age when you can apply Must be younger than 65 years old.

Nominees

Nomination of beneficiaries

If you (policy owner) are also the person insured under this policy, you can choose to nominate another person (or people) to receive the death benefit under this policy, and you can decide how much of the death benefit each nominee will receive.

Trust or revocable nomination

You have a choice of either a trust nomination or a revocable nomination under the Insurance Act. Depending on your choice, the nominees may have certain rights under the policy.

For a trust nomination, you will lose all rights to the ownership of the policy. You can only revoke a trust nomination if all nominees consent to the change.

For a revocable nomination, you are free to change, add or remove nominees at any time without their consent.

To make a trust or revocable nomination under this policy, you will have to complete the required form and pass it to us.

You should regularly check if your nominees are still appropriate.

Changing your nominees

Only you (the policy owner) can change the nominees. However, depending on the type of nomination you have selected, the nominees may need to consent to the change.

Assignment of benefits

You can transfer the benefits under your policy to someone else, through an assignment. For us to record this assignment of benefits, you need to provide us the completed required form and necessary documents. We will not be responsible for checking the validity of the assignment.

When we will not pay any benefit

This policy has certain exclusions, meaning situations where we won't pay a benefit under your policy. We list below the exclusions that apply to all benefits under your policy.

We may also apply specific exclusions to your policy when we offer to issue your policy. If any specific exclusion applies to certain benefits, we will record the details in a policy endorsement.

Suicide or self-inflicted act	We will not pay any benefit under this policy if the claim arises: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>■ from suicide, attempted suicide or an intentional self-inflicted act; and</li><li>■ is within one year of the start of your policy cover.</li></ul> This applies regardless of the mental state of the person insured. The opinion and diagnosis of this medical practitioner is binding on you and us.

We will deduct any monies you owe us on your policy before we pay any claim.

Who do we pay your claim to?

We pay the cancer benefit to you.

We pay the death benefit to the nominees.

Your premiums

This section explains your premiums and what happens when you miss paying a premium.

Paying your premium

It is important to pay your premiums on time, so your policy stays active and the person insured continues to be covered. Below we outline how you can pay your premiums and what happens if you don't pay on time.

Amount

Your policy schedule shows the amount you need to pay for this policy. To enjoy the benefits provided by this policy, please pay each premium before it is due.

Any amount due to us under this policy will be deducted from any benefit that becomes payable within the grace period.

Payment frequency options

You have the following payment frequency options.

- Annually in one lump sum.
- By monthly instalments

You can change your chosen method any time. See page 6 (changing your premium payment method or frequency) for how.

Payment method options

You can pay using any of the following options.

- Auto-debit from a credit card, or
- Other modes of payments as updated on our website from time to time.

Premium rates

The premiums that you pay for this policy are guaranteed during the period of insurance. However, at the policy renewal date, we reserve the rights to adjust subsequent premium(s) which may differ from the illustration in your policy illustration. We will let you know 30 days in advance if your subsequent premiums are revised.

What happens if you don't pay on time

Your premiums are due on the due date. We give you a 62-day grace period after the due date to pay your premium. Your policy will continue if you pay your overdue premium within this 62-day period. If we do not receive your premium within this period, we will cancel your policy.

First premium

Your first premium is due on the coverage start date.

Annual or monthly premiums

Due at the frequency you choose. You need to keep paying your premiums until the coverage end date, as shown in the policy schedule.

If you miss your premium payment

We give you a 62-day grace period after the due date to pay your premium.

Your policy ends from the date the premium was due if we do not receive your premium within this period.

Keeping it legal

In this section, we explain the important legal rights and obligations under your policy.

Governing law

Your policy is an insurance contract between you and us and is governed by the laws of the Republic of Singapore. If there is any dispute or disagreement relating to this policy, we and you agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Singapore courts.

Changes to your policy to comply with the law

We have the power to make any changes to your policy required to comply with any law (not just Singapore laws). If we need to make a change, we will write to you 30 days in advance.

We rely on your information

Read all parts of your policy to make sure they are correct

This policy is issued based on the information you gave us during the application process. It is important that the information is correct, and you were truthful and accurate with all of the information you provided. This information helped us to decide if you were eligible for the policy, and how much you need to pay.

The law as per Section 25(5) of the Insurance Act requires that we inform you of your duty to fully and faithfully tell us everything you know or could reasonably be expected to know that is relevant to our decision to insure you. Otherwise, we have the right to either decline your claims or terminate this policy and treat it as never having existed. In the event that we decide to maintain your cover, we may charge an additional premium.

You should let us know immediately if the information you gave us during the application, was inaccurate, misleading, or exaggerated. You should also let us know immediately if the information you have given us changes after your policy is active.

Change in residential address:
You must inform us within 60 days if you change your residential address.

You need to provide correct and complete information

You and the person insured are responsible for:

- Letting us have the correct and complete information.
- Being careful when answering our questions, or when you or the person insured confirm or amend any information you have given to us.

If you don't, we may not pay your claim, and your benefits under your policy may be affected. In some cases, we may cancel the policy. See page 13 (disputing payments) for more details.

If we were given the wrong age and gender

If we discover that we were given the wrong age or gender, we may adjust the amount of the benefit or premiums to reflect what the benefit or premiums should have been if we were provided with the correct age or gender in the first place.

If we would not have issued this policy if we had known the correct age, gender or any other details, we can declare your policy void. If we do, we will cancel your policy and treat it as never having existed. We will refund any premiums paid without interest, after deducting any benefits we have paid.

If you need to change your information, or if you have any questions, please call our hotline at +65 6820 8888 (9am to 10pm – Monday to Friday, 9am to 1pm – Saturday (excluding public holidays)).

Disputing payments

We can declare your policy void if you or the person insured:

- made an inaccurate or untrue statement on a material matter; or
- suppressed or omitted a material fact, within your application.

How we define material matters and facts

A material matter or material fact is one that would have caused us to:

- refuse to issue the policy to you; or
- offer you a policy on different terms, if you or the person insured had told us about it.

Unless there is fraud, we will not declare your policy void 2 years after the policy issue date.

However, we may not pay a claim if you or the person insured:

- did not provide accurate and truthful information;
- gave us misleading or exaggerated information; or
- made any false statements, at the time of purchase of this policy.

What we will do

- If we dispute your policy, we will review your policy and decide if we have any reason to declare it void. If we do, we will cancel it and treat it as never having existed.
- We will refund the premiums paid without interest, after deducting any amounts owed. If a benefit has been paid, we will recover that benefit.

Anti-money laundering, anti-terrorism financing and proceeds of unlawful activities

We may need to freeze or seize any monies received or payable under your policy:

- at the order of the relevant authorities; or
- if we discover, or if we have reasonable suspicion that you are sanctioned under any competent authorities recognised by us, for money laundering activities or activities relating to financing terrorism.

If this happens, we will end your policy and the cover under it immediately. We will deal with all premiums paid and all amounts payable under your policy in any manner we deem fit, which may include handing it over to the relevant authorities.

Policy owners' protection scheme

This policy is protected under the Policy Owners' Protection Scheme, which is administered by the Singapore Deposit Insurance Corporation (SDIC). Coverage for your policy is automatic and no further action is needed from you. For more information on the types of benefits that are covered under the scheme as well as the limits of coverage, where applicable, please contact us or visit the Life Insurance Association or SDIC websites (www.lia.org.sg) or (www.sdic.org.sg).
