Financial protection for you

You are entitled to the following benefits during the period of insurance.

Security bond plus

You are required to pay a S$5,000 security bond to the Singapore Ministry of Manpower for your helper. With this benefit, you are not required to pay that security bond.

Instead, we will issue a Letter of Guarantee to the Singapore Ministry of Manpower on your behalf. This replaces the S$5,000 security bond which you are required to deposit for your helper.

We won't make you pay for a breach of bond

You do not need to pay us if the Singapore Ministry of Manpower demands payment from us.

Outpatient expenses due to accident

We will pay for the medically necessary outpatient costs you incur to treat:

- your helper for dengue or zika; or
- any injury suffered by your helper due to an accident.

The accident must happen or the dengue or zika must be contracted while your helper:

- is in Singapore; or
- is travelling with you or your family overseas.

We will only pay what we believe is reasonable and customary for an item or service that you claim for.

What is not covered

We do not pay for any expenses incurred in relation to treatment by a traditional Chinese medicine practitioner.

Outpatient medical expenses

If you have selected the Enhanced or Exclusive plan, we will pay the following costs under this benefit:

- consultation costs;

for your helper to be treated in Singapore for illness at any of the clinics across our network of clinics.

What we pay

We pay up to S$30 per outpatient visit. You need to pay the first S$10 per visit plus any other amount we do not cover. We do not pay more than the benefit limit.

Daily hospital allowance

If you have selected the Enhanced or Exclusive plan, we will pay your helper a daily hospital allowance if she is admitted to a hospital in Singapore for treatment for illness or injury for at least 3 days in a row. The allowance will be paid for every 24 hours after the first 3 days in a row.

We won't pay the benefit if your helper is admitted to a hospital outside of Singapore.

What you're covered for

Hospitalisation and surgical expenses

We will reimburse the hospital on your behalf for the medically necessary hospitalisation and surgical expenses you incur to treat an illness, or any injury suffered by your helper due to an accident. Depending on the plan you have selected, you may be subject to a 25% co-payment after we have paid out the first S$15,000 each policy year. The benefit limit will reduce with each successful claim, and will reset to the full amount at the start of each policy year. Below is an illustration of when the co-payment will apply:

We reserve the right to lodge a report with the Singapore police or foreign authorities if you or your helper submit a dishonest, intentionally exaggerated, or fraudulent claim.

Tell us within 30 days

Claims need to be made within 30 days of the accident, injury, illness, or death being claimed for.

Cooperate with us

You and your helper need to provide us with any information and help that we need to process your claim, even after we have already paid your claim. We have the right to refuse to pay your claim if you don't provide us with the information or help we ask for. This may include any of the following.

Things to know

Costs of preparing your claim

We are not responsible for any of the costs of filling-in any forms or getting any documents, such as death or other certificates.

How we pay property claims

We pay all property claims based on the value of the items at the time of loss or damage. This means you or your helper may not get back the full purchase price. If we assess an item as being beyond repair and pay for its replacement, the damaged item becomes our property. You or your helper must keep any damaged property and send it to us if we ask for it. You or your helper will need to pay for any postage or transportation cost.

Dishonest, exaggerated, fraudulent claims

We may report you and/or your helper to the Singapore police or foreign authorities if we determine that you and/or your helper have submitted a dishonest, intentionally exaggerated, or fraudulent claim. If this happens, you must pay us any amount that we have paid to you (or to another party) under this policy, which would not have been paid but for the dishonest, intentionally exaggerated, or fraudulent claim.

You should let us know immediately if the information you and your helper gave us during the application was inaccurate, misleading, or exaggerated. You should also let us know immediately if the information you or your helper gave us has changed after your coverage start date.

You need to provide correct and complete information

Under Section 23(5) of the Insurance Act 1966, we must tell you that you have a duty to provide correct and complete information. For the information to be correct and complete, you need to tell us:

- everything you know; and
- everything you could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to our decision to insure you and your helper.

If we later find out that any information is inaccurate, misleading, or exaggerated, we may do any of the following:

- not pay your claim;
- change your insurance coverage by charging a different premium; and
- cancel your policy and treat it as if it had never existed.

This is a Singapore insurance contract

Your policy is governed by the laws of the Republic of Singapore. Under this contract of insurance, we agree to provide the benefits and protection based on the terms and conditions set out in your policy, and you and your helper agree to keep to those terms and conditions.

All amounts are in Singapore dollars

All amounts payable by you or us in relation to this policy will be in Singapore dollars. We will convert any eligible expenses you incur overseas into Singapore dollars at a reasonable foreign currency exchange rate that we choose. We are not legally responsible for any exchange rate-related losses that you may incur.

When benefits are not payable

We will not pay any benefit under this policy if:

- you, your family, or your helper, have not taken reasonable precautions to safeguard her or herself against any illness or injury, or others against any injury; and/or
- paying that benefit is illegal in Singapore under its economic and trade sanctions.

We may take steps to comply with laws, regulations and requests of relevant authorities in the areas of sanctions, anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing. These steps could include ending your policy and related cover, as well as treating premiums paid and amounts payable under your policy, in any manner we deem appropriate.

No rights for others under the policy

You and us are the only parties to your policy. Any person who is not a party to this policy has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 2001 to enforce any of its terms.

Legal action against you

If there is legal action against you and/or your helper under this policy, you have to do the following:

- you should inform us immediately;
- forward all communication that you receive regarding any legal action to us;
- check with us before communicating to any third party (including the police) about any legal action; and
- you or any person acting for you must not negotiate, admit or reject any claim without our approval in writing.

We may take over to settle or defend any legal claim

We may take over any rights to defend or settle any claim and to take legal action in your name to enforce your rights, or ours, against any other person.

We may also take legal action in your name (at our own expense) to recover any payment we have made under this policy to anyone else.
